

BISHOP HARDING'S GUESTS LUNCH WITH DR. AND MRS. M'KIM

Distinguished Prelates From England Renew Acquaintance With Priest.

OTHER PARTIES PLANNED

Reception This Afternoon in Honor of Visitors at Cathedral Close.

The Right Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, and his guests, the Lord Bishop of Worcester, his daughter, Miss Yeatman-Biggs; Bishop Montgomery, Miss Winsome Montgomery, and the Archdeacon of Worcester, lunching at the home of Dr. and Mrs. McKim today, renewing a pleasant acquaintance begun in England several years ago.

Tomorrow Bishop Harding and his distinguished guests will lunch with Mrs. William J. Boardman, and Monday the party will leave Washington for St. Louis, where the prelates will attend the triennial conference of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Miss Charlotte Harding will accompany her father.

This afternoon Bishop Harding will give a reception from 4 to 6 o'clock at the bishop's house, Cathedral Close, in honor of the Bishop of Worcester and Bishop Montgomery. Miss Harriette Douglas, sister-in-law of the host, who is chaperone of his household, will receive with the three bishops.

Miss Yeatman-Biggs and Miss Montgomery will preside at the tea table, and Miss Harding and a bevy of her young friends will assist in welcoming the guests.

The wide rooms of the bishop's house will have a simple but charming decoration of palms and cut flowers. Nearly 500 invitations have been issued, and the company will include many notables.

Bishop Harding entertained guests at dinner last evening in compliment to the visiting bishops.

Rust-Anderson Wedding.

A wedding of widespread interest to Washington society was solemnized at noon today when Miss Mildred Anderson, of New York and Washington, became the bride of Harry Lee Rust, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Rust, of this city. The home of Mrs. Alfred John Boulton, aunt of the bride, in Brooklyn, was the scene of the ceremony, and of the wedding breakfast, which followed at 1 o'clock.

Miss Elise Sage was the bride's only attendant, and Gwynn Rust was best man for his brother. After their wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Rust will make their home at Beverly Court in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Rust went to Brooklyn Friday to be present at their son's marriage.

Miss Lota Robinson, of New York, who has been visiting her cousins, Mrs. Charles Poe and Mrs. Poe White, is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean at Friendship.

Mrs. Sidney Hood, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Darling at 2254 Cathedral avenue and will spend the winter with her.

Miss Dorothy Dennett has returned from a visit with Miss Eleanor Orr, at the Isle of Pines in the Thousand Islands. Miss Dennett plans to devote the greater part of the winter to her musical studies.

POSTPONE HEARING FOR ARMOR PLANT

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 7.—The Secretary of the Navy has postponed the hearing for Alexandria on the armor plant until Thursday, October 12, at 11 o'clock. The Alexandria delegation will proceed to Washington at that time in a body, going with automobiles.

Decorators are busy at Armory Hall in preparation for the Masonic Fair Monday night. There will be booths representing as many different nationalities and the ladies in charge of each will wear appropriate costumes. Grand Master Alton Brown, of Virginia, will open the bazaar with an address.

George E. Hepburn, aged sixty-two, died last night after a long illness at his home, 483 South Fairfax street. Two children survive him, George Hepburn and Mrs. Arthur A. Swarman. Mr. Hepburn was formerly of the company of the Law Reporter, published in Washington, for several years.

John H. Hammersley died yesterday morning at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore. He was fifty-five years old, a native of this city. Funeral services will be held here, conducted by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

The installation of a modern fire alarm system for the city was recommended last evening at a meeting of the joint committees on finance, fire, and public property, recently appointed by the common council. The action was taken in accordance with suggestions made by the national board of fire underwriters.

Jacob Brill returned last night from Norfolk, where he attended the State convention of Elks.

Tombstone Long Used As Step for Front Porch

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Workmen engaged in making alterations at 32 Grove street, Flushing, L. I., owned by Thomas Halleran, turned over a marble slab which for years has been used as a step on the front porch. On the reverse side of the slab was found this inscription:

"Here lies the body of Samuel, son of Samuel and Mary Seabury. Died, April 13, 1781, aged nine months."

The building is said to have been erected more than a hundred years ago. About a half century ago it was moved from Main and Lincoln streets, where the burial ground of St. George's P. E. Church was located for years.

MISS DORIS DAWSON TO BECOME A BRIDE

Marriage to Carl W. Mitman
Will Be Celebrated Tonight at St. Andrew's.

St. Andrew's Church will be artistically decorated this evening with white roses and palms, when Miss Doris Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamilton Dawson, will become the bride of Carl W. Mitman, of South Bethlehem, Pa. A small company will witness the ceremony, which will be performed at 7:30 o'clock by the father of the bridegroom, Rev. Stewart Mitman, assisted by Rev. J. Johnson Dimon, pastor of the church. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be gowned in white satin, with a bodice of silver lace and a gracefully draped train of the lace. A foundation skirt of silver lace will be worn beneath the satin, about the feet. Her tulle veil will be arranged on the hair in a cap effect and caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Beatrice Dulin will be maid of honor and will wear a modish frock of an imported lavender silk, embroidered in silver, made with a bodice of cloth of silver and a skirt of net trimmed with tiny pink roses. Her bouquet will be of Killarney roses.

Samuel Mitman will be best man for his brother, and Thomas Dawson and Gray Dawson, brothers of the bride, will be the ushers.

A large company will attend the reception, which will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride in Riggs place. The house will be decorated with palms, ferns, and pink roses. The young couple will be assisted in receiving the guests by the bride's mother, who will wear a handsome gown of black velvet over black satin with sequin trimmings.

Later in the evening Mr. Mitman and his bride will leave for their wedding journey, the latter wearing a tailored suit of dark blue broadcloth, a small blue beaver hat and fox fur. They will make their home in Washington.

Miss Grace Kirk, of Baltimore, will come to Washington tomorrow to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson and to attend the wedding. Some of the other out-of-town guests at the wedding will be the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Mitman, parents of the bridegroom; his sister, Miss Helen Mitman, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Gilbert, all of South Bethlehem.

Go to Join Regiment.

Col. Edward R. Schreiner, U. S. A., who was at Fort Myer on leave, has just left to join his regiment on the border.

The Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Drury, left Washington this morning for their home in Brooklyn, where Mr. and Mrs. Drury will spend the winter. They will return to Washington on October 16. Mrs. Redfield will remain in Brooklyn, which will be Mr. Redfield's headquarters, but he will go on a speaking tour in Connecticut, New Jersey, and several other places. He will make an address in Camden tonight.

Capt. Clemens McMillan, U. S. A., spent Thursday in Washington en route from El Paso, to New York, where he is assisting in mustering out some of the New York national guard.

Mrs. Forayth, wife of Capt. William D. Forayth, has as her guest, her mother, Mrs. D. M. Dockery, of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Dockery will remain here until about December 1.

Miss Blanchard Scott will join her parents, Major General and Mrs. Hugh L. Scott at their home at Fort Myer next week, after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. Gann Entertains.

Mrs. Edward H. Gann, sister of Senator Charles Curtis, entertained at an informal card party yesterday afternoon at her residence in Harvard street in compliment to Mrs. Daniel R. Anthony, wife of Congressman Anthony, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Lawton Carrick.

Mrs. Anthony went to Arlington, Va., today to spend the week-end with Congressman and Mrs. Philip P. Campbell. She will return to Mrs. Carrick's residence on Monday to complete her visit.

Mrs. Connell, wife of Capt. William M. Connell, has returned to Fort Myer from a series of visits in New York and New England. Mrs. Connell, who was in the hospital for several months, is much improved in health.

Mrs. Barton, wife of Judge Robert M. Barton, of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert M. Barton, Jr., wife of Captain Barton, U. S. A. Mrs. Barton was her daughter-in-law's guest in the summer, but left here for Ocean City, Md., where she made an extended stay.

Lieut. Philip Sheridan, U. S. A., who is at Fort Myer on a short leave, will leave next week to join his regiment on the border.

Mrs. Fenton, wife of Major Charles W. Fenton, U. S. A., commandant at Fort Myer, has as her guest, Mrs. William C. Hicks, of Cumberland, Md.

Secretary Lansing Well.

The Secretary of State, who has been confined to the house with a slight indisposition for the past week, is now recovered and will resume his duties at the State Department Monday.

Interstate Commerce Commissioner E. E. Clark, Mrs. Clark, and Miss Helen Clark have returned to their home, 1818 Nineteenth street, after spending the summer at Falls Church, Va., where they have a country home.

Mrs. William Cummings Story, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, accompanied by about twenty-five of the daughters, left town today for a pilgrimage to Monticello, the former home of Thomas Jefferson, in the purchase of which estate the Daughters of the American Revolution have interested themselves.

The party was met at Charlottesville and entertained by the local chapter at luncheon. Later they will visit the University of Virginia and return to Washington tonight.

Yesterday Mrs. Story was hostess at a delightful luncheon in the banquet room of Continental Hall, entertaining in honor of the members of the national board, in session at the hall, and the chairman of the national committee. The guests numbered about forty.

months passed in a series of visits in New England.

Returns to New York.

Mrs. Glasgow, wife of Major William J. Glasgow, has returned to Washington from New York, where she spent a week. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Glasgow, and Miss Carlotta Glasgow, who are her house guests for a few days. They are en route from their summer residence in Nonquitt, Mass., to their home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Richard Burleson's mother, Mrs. Walker, who has been her guest for several months, will leave next week for her home in Galveston. Mrs. Burleson is packing in preparation to leave here within a few days to join Lieutenant Burleson on the border.

Mrs. Metcalf left Washington last week to join her husband, Major Raymond Metcalf, on the border.

Miss Edna Minn, of Milwaukee, who has been visiting Miss Fay Brennen at the Harrington Hotel, has entered National Park Seminary.

Morgan Residence Closed.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerry Morgan have closed their residence in Sixteenth street and have taken an apartment at the Hotel Lafayette for the winter. Their eldest daughter, Miss Myra Morgan, who has been spending the summer with one of her schoolmates, Miss Julia Hoyt, at her home in California, will continue her studies at the Misses Masters' school at Dobbs Ferry, New York. Miss Ruth Morgan will leave Washington on Tuesday for Middlebury, Conn., where she will attend the Westover school for young ladies this winter.

Col. S. L. H. Bloom, U. S. A., and Mrs. Bloom have arrived in Washington and are stopping at the Powhatan Hotel, where she will attend the Westover school for young ladies this winter.

Mrs. John Cassels and daughter, Miss Elsie Cassels, who spent the summer at Pointe a Pic, Quebec, Canada, have apartments at the Hotel Powhatan, while remodeling their home at 1907 F street.

Minister McGowan to Leave.

Preston McGowan, American minister to Venezuela, who with Mrs. McGowan and their son, Master Preston McGowan, Jr., has been staying at the Cairo for several weeks, will leave Washington today for a business trip to a number of cities in the Middle West. Mrs. McGowan and her son will leave here the first of the week for a series of visits in Columbus, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Missouri, and Kentucky. Mr. McGowan hopes to join her in Columbus. They will all return to Washington November 12 to remain until the end of November, when they will go to New York to sail on the 23rd for Venezuela.

Mr. McGowan is on leave of sixty days, as was a newspaper man, and has many friends in a number of cities, and is trying to divide his time among them. He visited the States last year when they traveled all over the country.

Wedding Is Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Johnson announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Annelise Johnson to James Lloyd Wright, of this city. The wedding will take place at 8 o'clock on the evening of October 20 at the home of the bride, 243 Holmead place, and will be witnessed by a small company.

MISS LECKIE TO BE MARRIED TONIGHT

Will Become Bride of Leroy Freemire at Home Wedding at 8.30 o'clock.

An interesting home wedding will take place at 8:30 this evening, when Miss Anne Kolb Leckie will become the bride of Leroy Freemire, formerly of New York, now of Washington. Dr. John Britton Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church will officiate, and the bride will be given in marriage by her brother, A. E. L. Leckie.

The drawing room at the home of the bride will be transformed into a flower garden with masses of white roses arranged against a background of palms and ferns, while pink roses will be bunched on the mantels and in the bow window in the dining room.

The bride will wear a gown of ivory satin made over a foundation skirt of silver lace and white tulle. The bodice is of duchesse lace, and the court train of panne velvet. The veil is of tulle, and will be arranged with a cap and scarf of rose pink lace. Here only ornament will be the gift of the bridegroom, a handsome sunburst of diamonds and pearls. She will carry a bouquet of white roses and lilies.

Wear White Satin.

Miss Elizabeth Leckie, who will be maid of honor for her sister, will wear a gown of white satin and chantilly lace, and will carry pink roses.

Wendell Mansfield, of New York, will serve as best man and Leckie Cox, nephew of the bride, will be ring bearer. He will complete the wedding party. Mrs. George F. Schutt will play the wedding march.

About sixty guests will witness the ceremony and will be entertained at a reception. The bride's sister, Mrs. J. L. Roberts, of Rock Springs, Wyo., will receive with her, Mrs. Roberts will be gowned in a smart frock of Belgian blue satin embroidered in silver.

The bride will wear a modish tailored suit of brown English cloth trimmed with mole skin, and a small brown velvet hat embroidered with beads, when she and the bridegroom leave for an extended wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside at 1761 Willard street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Johnson announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Annelise Johnson to James Lloyd Wright, of this city. The wedding will take place at 8 o'clock on the evening of October 20 at the home of the bride, 243 Holmead place, and will be witnessed by a small company.

pany of relatives and intimate friends. Lieut. Carlton H. Wright, U. S. N., who will act as best man, will be the only attendant.

To Be Married This Evening.

Miss Grace Marguerite Dewey and Dr. Carl G. Frost, of Buffalo, will be married at 7:30 o'clock this evening in Guston Temple Presbyterian Church, of Buffalo, N. Y.

The bride will be attended by her mother, Mrs. Lyster Dewey, who will act as matron of honor, wearing the gown in which she was married. Miss Pauline Frost, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Daehli, will be maids of honor, and Mrs. Naida Wood, of Lynchburg, Va., Miss Olive Frost, of Buffalo, another sister of the bridegroom; Miss Lillian Emerson, of this city, and Miss Ethel May Turner, of Pittsburgh, will be other attendants.

Allen Frost, of Springfield, Ohio, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers will be Carlos Bushnell, of Buffalo; Henry Milford, of New York; Dr. John Short, of Philadelphia, and James Pierce and Paul G. Russell, of this city. Little Miss Ada Katherine Works and Miss Lorraine Frost, sister of the bridegroom, will be the flower girls.

A reception at the home of the bride will follow the ceremony.

The Superintendent of the Naval Academy and Mrs. Eberle have issued invitations for a tea at their quarters at the Academy, in Annapolis, on Thursday afternoon, October 19, at 4:30, to meet Assistant Paymaster Edward Randolph Eberle, their son, and his bride-to-be, Miss Mildred North, who will be married on October 14. The ceremony will be performed in St. Stephen's Church, Providence, R. I., and will be followed by a reception in the home of the bride's father, Charles Weed North.

VOICES PROTEST OF RACE ON LYNCHING

National Equal Rights League Indorses Hughes.

Urging Congress to aid them in their fight to make lynching a crime against the United States, the National Equal Rights League, in their all-day session at the John Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday, adopted resolutions tending to do away with color segregation and disfranchisement.

The Rev. Byron Gunner, president of the league and 180 delegates, representing twenty-five States, were in attendance.

The league also went on record as stating President Wilson had fostered race prejudice, and the support of Mr. Hughes was urged. The Rev. Byron Gunner was elected permanent president of the league. William M. Trotter was elected secretary, and Thomas Walker treasurer. J. E. Churchman was elected national organizer and was instructed to take the field at once. At a mass meeting held last night, a paper on the "Declaration of Principles" was ready by William A. Sinclair, of Philadelphia.

NEW EDITOR A MONTH IS MAGAZINE'S MOTTO

"If you don't like our magazine this month, cheer up. We'll have a new editor next month."

This might well be the standing monthly greeting of the magazine published by the Home Club, of the Department of the Interior, on Thursday afternoon, October 5, at 4:30, to meet Assistant Paymaster Edward Randolph Eberle, their son, and his bride-to-be, Miss Mildred North, who will be married on October 14. The ceremony will be performed in St. Stephen's Church, Providence, R. I., and will be followed by a reception in the home of the bride's father, Charles Weed North.

This periodical, The Home Club Bulletin, has attained the size of a regular magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

The contents of this month's issue range from an article on how the Department of the Interior came to be established to a story, "Concerning Pete El Al," by this month's editor, George A. Warren.

The October issue also contains news reports of the trip of the safety-first special of the Home Club Circus, the club's educational classes, its rifle team, and its other varied activities.

magazine, contains a goodly lot of advertising, and has special articles and fiction.

This month the managing editor was George A. Warren, of the Solicitor's office, and the associate editor was Don E. Clarke, supplies division, Secretary's office. But their rule is not for long. Under their names is the announcement of the editorial board for November, headed by Walter N. Campbell and Miss Mary Louise Carr.

From the frozen north to the blazing tropics
Baker's Cocoa is known for its purity and high quality.

Walter Baker & Co. Ltd
ESTABLISHED 1780 DORCHESTER, MASS.

Detroit Electric

Upkeep cost of the Detroit Electric is lower per mile than any automobile on the market.

Ninety miles per battery charge is an average circumstance with Detroit owners.

No Detroit Electric ever "stalls" on the road because of mechanical troubles.

Light in weight, eight thousand miles is not uncommon tire mileage.

A real Automobile—it has power and rugged strength unequalled in any other pleasure car.

Sumptuous in appointments, luxurious in riding comfort, agreeably free from odor or noise, it is the ultimate car of today.

Three Passenger Cabriolet

$2175

Five Passenger (Double Drive) Brougham

$2375

Four Passenger Brougham

$2275

STERRETT & FLEMING

Exclusive Distributors for

Detroit Electrics & Philadelphia Diamond Grid Batteries

Champlain Street at Kalorama Road

North Fifty-Fifty

WASHINGTON

Richmond

Baltimore

ASK FOR AND GET
HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK
Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price.